LIGHTING THE PATH: NAVIGATING SPECIAL EDUCATION WITH YOUR STUDENT

In this virtual session parents and guardians will:

- Learn practical tools for navigating special education
- Move from feeling overwhelmed to feeling confident supporting your student
- Learn with a supportive community of other parents

The school year is off to a great start. Get connected with ways to support your student. Small steps add up to big progress. Remember to be kind to yourself, you are learning too! We hope to see you in this parent information session.
